

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS TO THE ECONOMETRIC SOCIETY
MONOGRAPH SERIES

FOR MONOGRAPHS IN ECONOMIC THEORY, a PDF of the manuscript can be submitted using Editorial Express. See the guidelines at the Society's website: <https://www.econometricsociety.org/publications/monograph-series/submissions>. Please choose the Editor, Alessandro Pavan and economic theory as area when filling out the submission form. Only electronic submissions will be accepted.

For monographs in theoretical and applied econometrics, a PDF of the manuscript can be submitted using Editorial Express. Please choose the Editor, Serena Ng and theoretical and applied econometrics as area when filling out the submission form. Only electronic submissions will be accepted.

Any trouble with submission to either area, please email the editorial office at esmonographs@econometricsociety.org

They must be accompanied by a letter of submission and be written in English. Authors submitting a manuscript are expected to notify the Editors if they have submitted it elsewhere. It is the author's responsibility to inform the Editors about these matters. There is no submission charge.

The Editors will also consider proposals consisting of a detailed table of contents and one or more sample chapters, and can offer a preliminary contingent decision subject to the receipt of a satisfactory complete manuscript.

All submitted manuscripts should be double spaced on paper of standard size, 8.5 by 11 inches or European A, and should have margins of at least 1 inch on all sides. The figures should be publication quality. The manuscript should be prepared in the same manner as papers submitted to Econometrica.

Manuscripts may be rejected, returned for specified revisions, or accepted. Once a monograph proposal has been accepted, the author will sign a contract with the Econometric Society and with the Publisher through Cambridge University Press. Currently, monographs usually appear no more than twelve months from date of final acceptance.